

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to confirm that _____ is registered to attend the International Baking Industry Exposition (IBIE), which will take place from September 13 to 17, 2025, at the Las Vegas Convention Center, Las Vegas, Nevada, USA.

IBIE is a globally recognized professional trade event organized by the American Bakers Association (ABA), Bakery Equipment Manufacturers and Allieds (BEMA), and the Retail Bakers of America (RBA). It serves as a central marketplace for the global grain-based food industry, offering educational sessions, product showcases, and networking opportunities for professionals across all segments of the baking supply chain.

Attendees registered for this event will attend to explore innovations, meet with exhibitors, and participate in professional programming. This visit is consistent with permissible activities under the B-1 visa category or equivalent visa waiver program, for eligible nationalities.

The attendee's registration details are as follows:

- Registration ID: _____
- Event Dates: September 13–17, 2025
- Purpose of Visit: Attendance at trade exhibition, professional meetings, and education sessions
- Host Organization: International Baking Industry Exposition (www.bakingexpo.com)
- Event Location: Las Vegas Convention Center, 3150 Paradise Rd, Las Vegas, NV 89109, USA

We trust that this letter will assist in verifying the bona fide business purpose of our registered attendee's travel to the United States.

Should you require further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Samantha Moore, CMP, CEM
